U.K. to Sweep Mines

U.K. to Sweep Mines

LONDON, (Reuters)—Britain sees no reason to abandon the decision to sweep mines from the Gulf channel of Albania, it was learned authoritatively Tuesday. Albania has warned Britain that any attempt to clear Albanian territorial waters will be regarded as a "premeditated violation of Albanian sovereignty."

Britain, it was understood, has been assigned the task of sweeping the Corfu channel by the Mediterranean zone board which supervises mine clearance and on which are represented the Big Four powers as well as Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey.

This decision has been ratified by the central board composed of the Big Four powers alone.

BELOGRADE, (Reuters)—The Belgrade government has warned Britain that any attempt by the Royal Navy to clear Albanian territorial waters of mines will be regarded as a "premeditated violation of Albanian sovereignty," according to information from the Albanian legation in Belgrade, quoted by the Yugoslav news agency.

The Albanian legation stated that on Nov. 10 the British government, through the Albanian legation in Belgrade, sent a note to the Albanian government to the effect that Britain would proceed to clear the mines in the Corfu straits Nov. 15.

In instructions from its government, the Albanian legation here declared that the British government had no right to clear the Corfu straits.

Interests to Nationalize Transport, Electricity

LONDON, (CP)—With the speech from the throne promising legislation for peacetime conscription and nationalization of inland transport and electricity industries, the second parliamentary session of Prime Minister Attlee's Labor government opened Tuesday.

Opening of parliament took place amid pre-war pomp and centuries-old tradition—and the reality of the most elaborate and stringent precautions since the 1880 and 1940 bombings attributed to the Irish Republican Army.

A special watch was kept for members of the Jewish extremists' organizations who might have slipped into Britain.

Every policeman and detective Scotland Yard could spare—more than 5,000 all told—mingled with the crowds along the route as His Majesty the King drove from Buckingham Palace to Westminster for the opening ceremony using an Irish state coach built for Queen Victoria.

These are the legislative forecasts in the throne speech:

1. "A measure providing for the continuation of the national service from the date when the present transitional scheme comes to an end."

2. "A measure, to bring inland transport services under national ownership and control."

3. "Proposals for the compensation and betterment in relation to town and country planning."

Firemen Line Up For Theatre Fire

HAMILTON, (CP) - Firemen rushing to answer a call to the Capital Theatre, almost had to queue up to get at the fire.

Crowds, gathered in a long line outside, greeted the firemen with shouts of "Get to the back of the line," and "Wait your turn." But inside the theatre there was calm, though smoke filled the building.

Police said a 16-year-old boy ran and urged everyone to remain seated and keep quiet. The fire was discovered in a chandelier chair in the actor's room and was extinguished with little damage.

MOSCOW, (AP) - The Soviet government disclosed Monday a drive to rejuvenate its vast but admittedly poorly functioning system of producers' and consumers' co-operatives in an effort to spur further economic growth and thus effect a reduction in prices.

A decree setting up a "chief administration" of affairs of producers' and consumers' co-operatives under the council of ministers was published in the official Communist party newspaper Pravda.

The co-operatives have been given special permission to organize in cities and workers' settlements at railway stations and ports. They can rent private houses and thus effect a reduction in prices.

Before the war more than 75,000 persons belonged to Soviet co-operatives, headed by the "chief soviet," or central union. It obtained 100,000 rubles from the state to run its own factories and workshops.

From buying plots. It formerly did an annual business of 20,000,000 rubles about $4,700,000,000 at the official exchange rates, but this declined drastically during the war.

Today the central union carries on its trade only in rural localities. It directs points the way for the development of its activities in cities and workers' settlements, but there are thousands in the Soviet Union.

Drew Asks Action To Maintain Peace
NEWARK, N.J., (CP) - Premier Louis L. Brandeis today urged a joint service club Armistice luncheon to be held in the city to mark the contribution to the Second World War should not be permitted to weaken positive action to maintain permanent peace.

Col. Drew was the chief speaker at a luncheon gathering which included Canadian and British representatives from New York, officers of the Canadian Society of New York and Hugh D. Beatty, Canadian consul general in New York. John Bracken, leader of the Progressive Conservative party, also was at the luncheon.

The united effort of the English speaking peoples had saved the world from domination, Premier Drew said, and if applied earnestly enough could have saved it from the ravages of a world war which so recently ended with German victory.

He said preservation of peace could not be achieved except by positive action on the part of those who had it in their power to do it.

"It was the desire for peace in the United States, in the British Commonwealth and in most countries of the world, which made it possible for Germany to make the unmeasurable distance of world domination," said Col. Drew.

"First of the lessons to be learned from those years of shattered lives between two wars, is the inescapable fact that the preservation of peace requires positive action for the prevention of aggressive war."

Wants U.S. After Its Constitution
DENVER, (AP) - James G. Polton, U.S. Senator, president of the National Farmers' Union, Monday suggested that the Republican party "initiate a constitutional amendment which would eliminate fixed terms of office and provide for a parliamentary system of government."

In a statement, he said that with "Democratic participation in a Republican-controlled Congress" neither party has had to assume full responsibility for how government is run.

"Under a parliamentary system, the dreadfulness of both major political parties could be challenged by coalition governments which the people could hold responsible," Mr. Polton declared.

If President Truman were to appoint Harold Stassen as secretary of state and resign the presidency, then the Republican party would have complete opportunity to reorganize the government to suit their needs and, at the same time, be held squarely responsible for what happens to us, Mr. Stassen because such appointment would constitute a coalition within the Republican party."

Japanese Celebrate New Constitution

Japanese turned out en masse in Tokyo and other Japanese cities recently to celebrate the coming of the "new Japan," provided for in the new constitution which came into effect today.

The new constitution, which was drafted by a committee of the Diet, the Japanese parliament, and approved by the people in a referendum in 1946, is the first time since the Meiji Restoration in 1868 that the Japanese people have had a say in their own government.

The new constitution provides for a more democratic form of government, with a more powerful role for the people in the selection of their representatives to the Diet.

The new constitution also provides for a more efficient system of government, with a more streamlined process for the passage of laws and the execution of government business.

The new constitution is a landmark in the history of Japan, and it is hoped that it will lead to a more peaceful and prosperous future for the Japanese people.

Stalin Asks UNRRA Be Kept Operating
NEW YORK, (CP) - Filadelfia, Pa. (AP) - Joseph Stalin today urged the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA) to be kept operating.

Stalin said in a speech to the Soviet parliament that the UNRRA was a valuable organization which had helped to relieve the suffering of millions of people in Europe and Asia during the war.

He said that the UNRRA should continue to operate after the war, as it would be a valuable asset to the world in the reconstruction of the war-torn areas.

Stalin also said that the UNRRA should be given more resources to help it carry out its work more effectively.

The UNRRA is a United Nations agency which was established in 1943 to provide relief and rehabilitation for the victims of the war.

The UNRRA has been successful in providing relief to millions of people in Europe and Asia, and it is hoped that it will continue to be successful in the future.

See Price Control 'Battle' At Next Parliament Session

By George Kitchen
OTTAWA, (CP) - Political observers said Monday the federal government appeared to be laying the groundwork for a major legislative battle at the next session of parliament on the question of price control.

As an indication of the trend of governmental thought, they pointed to the series of broadcast addresses currently being made by Donald Gordon, Canada's price controller, in which he is stressing the consequences of immediate abolition of price control.

While he has made it clear he is not arguing a case either for or against the continuation of controls, the price board chairman has painted an unhappy picture of inflated prices all along the line in a controlled Canada and has said the Canadian people must choose between what he called "controlled readjustment and uncontrolled readjustment."

From the discussions in the commonsense during the session which ended two months ago, it is apparent that a showdown on the question of price control will come early in the approaching session, when the government is expected to introduce legislation seeking to retain them and the Progressive Conservative opposition is expected to demand their repeal.

The government already has announced its plans to introduce legislation to give statutory force to many controls. This action is necessary because the controls were continued from the war period under the National Emergency (Transition) Powers Act and are due to expire when that act lapses early next year.

At the same time, the government is expected to attempt to control what it believes they no longer are necessary.

U.S. Influence
The arguments both for and against the controls are expected to be sharpened by the situation in the United States, where the Republicans are expected to demand the elimination of the controls.

WASHINGTON, (AP) - President Truman Monday advocated a "truce" between labor and management.

Writing curbs on the two groups were lifted Saturday, eight after five years when Mr. Truman swept out of all terms except trust, sugar and rice.

The subject of a labor-management truce came up at the present time conference when a reporter asked whether he had noted such proposals.

Mr. Truman replied that he had not heard of the suggestions, but said this is just what he has been urging since August, 1941, when the war ended.

Issue Fats, Oils To Aid Veterans

By H. K. Hardy
OTTAWA.—The oils and fats administration of the prices board is "doing the way for Canadian veterans who wish to start up in the baking or allied trades." H. K. Hardy, oils and fats administrator, says.

"It doesn't matter what business they want to go into, whether it is selling potato chips or opening a bake shop, we see that veterans get the advantages of oils and fats they require to start up and operate," said Mr. Leberg.

Change said Mr. Leberg, is the only "in-Somerset country to manufacture, something from livestock, it is ahead of the United States in this respect."

HAPPY BIRTHDAY—Six years ago the huge Center Theatre, New York City, was turned over exclusively to the production of ice shows. Here, celebrating sixth anniversary are: left to right, Joan Hyloft, of the cast; R. V. Downing, theatre official; Cynthia Wirtz, daughter, and Mrs. Arthur M. Wirtz, wife of the co-producer of "Ice Time," and G. S. Eysell, director of Radio City Music Hall and Center Theatre.

ALL THIS AND TURKEY, TOO?—Getting ready for Thanksgiving, Martha Hyer, attired in the latest of chefs' costumes, poses beside a big turkey in Hollywood.

DISABLED VETS VOTED, TOO—Grey Lady Mrs. Samuel S. Fung, Red Cross worker, holds ballot box while veteran Herman Newman in Mt. Alto Veterans' Hospital, Washington, D.C., casts his vote. The residents of the District of Columbia were voting for the first time for "the right to vote," and the right to vote for President and members of Congress in the District.

JUMPING THE GUN—While most cities wait until Thanksgiving to decorate for Christmas, Chicago's Yule-season-minded State Street puts up the first of eight 740-pound aluminum wreaths which will decorate The Loop district.

SHOPPING DAY IN TOKYO—American customers, mostly women, jam the counters of the new Tokyo PX to buy long-scarce items ranging from pink sweaters and nail polish to electric irons and phonograph records, as the world's largest Army Post Exchange opened on The Ginza. The PX features a restaurant, barber and beauty shop, a nursery, and a dry cleaning and tailor shop.

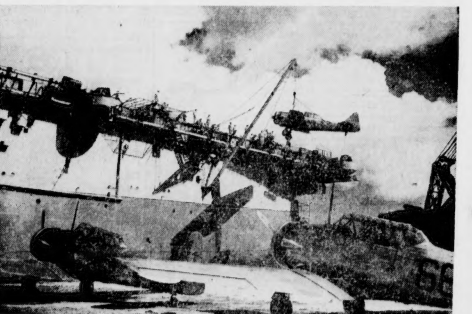

HERE'S HOPING—Mrs. Virginia Olson carries her adopted son, Bonnie, 4, from the train that brought them to Chicago from Denver, Col., for a delicate operation that may restore the child's eyesight. It is hoped that surgery will enable Bonnie to see his boys at Christmastime.

THE TREATMENT—Homer Snow, seal trainer at Fleishhacker Zoo, San Francisco, wants all his charges to look and smile their best, so he mixes up a special tooth paste formula with a fish-oil base. Here he gives "Big Boy" the treatment.

PRESIDENTIAL BLESSING—During 15-minute stopover in St. Louis, Charles Ross, White House press secretary, introduces his twin granddaughters to President Truman. Babe's father is Ross' son Walter. The President was enroute to Washington after voting.

BACK TO FRANCE—French training planes, used by French Naval Air Cadets at the Embury-Riddle School, Homestead, Fla., are being returned to France aboard the French aircraft carrier, Dixmude. Here a derrick hoists one of the planes to the flight deck of the carrier.

JAPS LIKE "DER BINGLE"—Crowds of Japanese movie fans line up outside Tokyo's Hibiy Theatre to see the film, "Going My Way." Only Japanese are permitted in the theatre, which is "Off Limits" to U. S. troops. Film is first U. S. movie Japanese have seen since before the war.

Series of Short Courses On Tourist Trade Planned

With the provincial government feeling the bill there will be introduced next spring a series of short courses designed to improve all types of catering to the tourist trade, according to a government announcement Tuesday.

CO-OPERATING WITH THE GOVERNMENT in organization of the courses are the Edmonton, Calgary and Lethbridge trade boards. At each of these cities training will be given.

Lectures will be given on tourist camp operation and their regulation under the provincial trade act, as well as hints on the preparation and sale of foods. Heavy emphasis will be placed on courtesy and service, as well as cleanliness and general sanitation.

The courses are expected to prove popular with all business districts associated with the tourist trade, especially service station operators, restaurateurs and others.

PREPARATION OF THE MATERIALS to be used is already under way, although the courses will not begin until next spring. The trade boards of the three cities have agreed to assist in organization of materials and to secure lecturers.

Conference Opens on Wednesday

To Prepare Brief On Freight Rates

Representatives of the four western provinces gather here Wednesday to begin preparation of a brief opposing the application of the railways for a 30 per cent increase in freight rates throughout Canada.

WORKS MINISTER W. A. FALLOU of Alberta in an interview today said present rates are too high for Manitoba, Saskatchewan and British Columbia and that the "ranked discrimination" is suffered by Alberta "at the apex of the freight rate structure."

The four provinces agreed at Ottawa in May, 1945, to prepare a brief urging "more equitable" rates but after the railways had raised a 30 per cent increase throughout the country, it was decided their protest should take the form of an opposing brief when the railways' application comes before the board of transport commissioners.

CRITICIZING present rates, Mr. FalloU said it is obvious that a 30 per cent increase would be a hardship on the railways and that a 30 per cent increase would be a hardship on the railways and that a 30 per cent increase would be a hardship on the railways.

The minister said the cause of this was the railways' desire to complete with the free sale of water through the Panama Canal and commented that the States there is a rate agreement.
